Reading Task 2

PART A

Read the text and answer the questions. Choose the correct option: a, b, or c. An example has been done for you.

Hi Jane

How are you? I hope you are well. I'm emailing you about meeting this weekend. We don't want a repeat of last weekend. I know Sue said it would be an awesome film but it was so boring. I should have read more about it. At least it wasn't too long, and we had a good laugh about it.

How about we meet at the park at 10.00 on Saturday morning? We could meet Hanna and Sue as well. It's not far from the Clearwater Shopping Centre. There's a new clothes shop there called Top Store that sells some really fashionable items. However, I think it's quite expensive. We could always just look at the things we like and then buy them later online for less. Then we can get some food. There are lots of restaurants. I prefer pizza but Hanna likes fish and chips. I don't know what Sue likes. Maybe she likes fish and chips as well. Let's make a decision on Saturday.

In the evening, I am not sure what to do. Not a film! Maybe we should go to a concert. I haven't seen a band for a long time. There is one called the Starfish in town on Saturday night, but I am not sure if you will like them. Do you have any ideas?

We need to tell Hanna and Sue. Can you get in touch with Hanna? She rarely answers my phone calls. I will talk to Sue and let her know the time.

See you on Saturday

Reading Task 3

Read the three texts. Answer the questions by writing the correct letter: A, B, or C.
An example has been done for you.

Text A

Hi Mike

You must go to the new cinema on Smith Square. The one that opened last week. The seats are so comfortable, it has 6 screens and it was really cheap - only £7 each. I went on Tuesday to see The Long Day Out. It's excellent. Brian Jones is such a great actor. The only problem is that it's quite far out of town, so you might need to get the bus or car to get there.

Jane

Text B

There are so many cinemas in London it is hard to say which one is the best. There are 28 in central London and they vary in size, price and quality. The cheapest is the Prince Charles. Prices are from £1.50 up to £4. But the best, in my opinion, is the Genesis, where they have a pizza restaurant and you can take your pizza into the film if you don't finish in time.

Katie, London

Text C

Why not see your next film at The Grand on Regent Street? We have an award winning cinema, with the largest screens in town and the most professional staff you will find anywhere. We have to warn you that because we are the best, we can get very busy. We advise that you order tickets in advance. Otherwise you might be disappointed. Normal tickets are £15 for an adult and children aged 6 to 15 are half-price. We have a special offer on tickets on Tuesdays.
